About 54 reasons

54 reasons is Australia's leading child rights organisation, proudly part of the Save the Children Australia Group and global movement. We're here to make sure that everyone understands their rights. So that children and young people have their rights met and thrive, in all their diversity.

We champion the children, young people and families we work with. We are inspired by the curiosity and creativity of children, and motivated by the love of those who care for them. With the child's voice at the centre, we provide quality services to children and their caregivers, advocating with them so that children develop, learn, and are connected, safe and confident.

Our people are proudly local, and as diverse as the communities we serve - in every state and territory, and across regions, remote areas and capital cities. Our operations and services span the early years and school engagement, youth justice, domestic and family violence and family support, and our practice is grounded in child rights and participation.

From our 54 reasons Practice Framework to our culture where you will feel valued, belong and make a difference for children, 54 reasons is truly a place you will learn and grow. Find out more about Our Promise to Children and Young People and how our Practice and Impact measurement team works to ensure the provision of high quality, contemporary and inspiring service, practise and outcomes that meet and exceed client needs. Here you'll make a difference

At Save the Children Australia, we attract bright and big-hearted people who are inspired to make a difference. Together, we are fearless in our pursuit of making lasting change for the children and communities who need it most.

Role Purpose

The Child Development Worker actively engages children to build their skills in all developmental areas to get them ready to transition into education, and engages parents/carers in the delivery of a quality program in order to facilitate improved relationships between parents/carers and children. The Child Development Worker creates an environment of trust and respect with families and children to maximise participation and assist in identifying where additional support and external services may be required.

Child Development Workers contribute to 54 reasons' purpose to inspire breakthroughs in the way the world treats children, and to achieve immediate and lasting change in their lives.

The key focus areas for the Child Development Worker are:

- Provision of quality service delivery
- Active engagement and promotion of the program with the community
- Engagement with families
- Collaboration with team members
- Evaluation and reporting

Here your skills will be valued

Service delivery

- Work under supervision of the Team Leader to deliver a quality and effective program, including set-up, program facilitation and preparation of materials
- Observe behaviour of children and parents to assist in determining development needs
- Contribute to program planning, building on existing strengths and seeking opportunities for enhancement and improvement
- Maintain resources to a safe standard, to ensure they are in good condition and working order

Community engagement

- Create and maintain networks within the community and with external agencies
- Actively participate in community events to promote program impact and grow program reach
- Proactively promote the program within the community

Engagement with families

- Actively engage with families and encourage parent participation in activities to facilitate improved family relationships
- Create a welcoming and safe environment for families and children, to better understand children's needs and develop appropriate programs
- Engage and build rapport with vulnerable families, and support the referral of new families
- Ensure that all practice is culturally appropriate and suitable for families engaged in the program

Teamwork and collaboration

- Consult with broader team to identify potential referral needs
- Participate in regular team meetings and maintain open lines of communication, encouraging the sharing of knowledge
- Provide specialist support to the broader team in early childhood strategies and developmental needs of children

Evaluation and reporting

- Assist with process monitoring, data collection and reporting
- Under the direction of the Team Leader manage receipts for program materials for reporting and effective budget management

Health, safety, security and risk management

- Be a role model for safety and security and comply with all workplace safety policy, procedure, work instructions and training
- Act safely at all times
- Report all incidents, injuries and potential hazards in a timely manner
- Participate in, and contribute to, health and safety awareness and improvements
- Be aware of, document and manage the risks associated with your team's programs and workplaces and ensure appropriate elimination or mitigation measures are applied

Child protection and safeguarding requirements

- Maintain a child safe environment at the workplace and safeguard children's rights, acting in the best interests of children at all times
- Comply with Child Safeguarding Policy and Code of Conduct
- Demonstrate the highest standards of behaviour towards children in both your private and professional life
- Never abuse the position of trust that comes with being a part of the Save the Children family
- Maintain a safe and positive relationship at all times when working with children and young people
- Respond to any concerns for the safety or wellbeing of a child in a program in accordance with internal reporting processes

All roles at Save the Children contribute to our impact for children

At Save the Children and 54 reasons, every role, whether in our programs or support services, plays a vital part in our impact for children. We are committed to creating a positive impact on the lives of children and their communities, and we value the contributions of every team member in achieving this vision.
