About 54 reasons

54 reasons is Australia's leading child rights organisation, proudly part of the Save the Children Australia Group and global movement. We're here to make sure that everyone understands their rights. So that children and young people have their rights met and thrive, in all their diversity.

We champion the children, young people and families we work with. We are inspired by the curiosity and creativity of children, and motivated by the love of those who care for them. With the child's voice at the centre, we provide quality services to children and their caregivers, advocating with them so that children develop, learn, and are connected, safe and confident.

Our people are proudly local, and as diverse as the communities we serve - in every state and territory, and across regions, remote areas and capital cities. Our operations and services span the early years and school engagement, youth justice, domestic and family violence and family support, and our practice is grounded in child rights and participation.

From our 54 Reasons Practice Framework to our culture where you will feel valued, belong and make a difference for children, 54 Reasons is truly a place you will learn and grow. Find out more about Our Promise to Children and Young People and how our Practice and Impact measurement team works to ensure the provision of high quality, contemporary and inspiring service, practise and outcomes that meet and exceed client needs. Here you'll make a difference

At Save the Children Australia, we attract bright and big-hearted people who are inspired to make a difference. Together, we are fearless in our pursuit of making lasting change for the children and communities who need it most.

Role Purpose

The key focus areas for the Community Engagement Worker are:

- In consultation and with respect to the community, empowering community members to have a voice
- Supporting 54 reasons employees to build strong connections within the community
- Building trusting relationships with families to break down the barriers that prevent them from accessing support
- Engaging children, families, communities and groups to improve knowledge of and accessibility to health services, early childhood education services and family support services

Here your skills will be valued

Role requirements

- Build rapport with community members who may be reluctant or hesitant to access support
- Empower community members to have a voice and act as a conduit between community members and staff
- Coordinate activities to bring together families and communities together in positive activities that provide opportunity to connect with services, resources and information designed to meet their needs in culturally appropriate ways
- Communicate about emerging issues in community, and identify family needs for safety, wellbeing, recreation, creativity, cultural involvement and community participation

- Provide opportunities for 54 reasons employees to engage with children and families in non-clinical 'soft entry' settings
- Maintain accurate up-to-date records on the support services available in the community
- Work effectively in a team and support programs when required
- Participate in training to build skills and competence in the role

Health, safety, security and risk management

- Be a role model for safety and security and comply with all workplace safety policy, procedure, work instructions and training
- Act safely at all times
- Report all incidents, injuries and potential hazards in a timely manner
- Participate in, and contribute to, health and safety awareness and improvements
- Be aware of, document and manage the risks associated with your team's programs and workplaces and ensure appropriate elimination or mitigation measures are applied

Child protection and safeguarding requirements

- Maintain a child safe environment at the workplace and safeguard children's rights, acting in the best interests of children at all times
- Comply with Child Safeguarding Policy and Code of Conduct
- Demonstrate the highest standards of behaviour towards children in both your private and professional life
- Never abuse the position of trust that comes with being a part of the Save the Children family
- Maintain a safe and positive relationship at all times when working with children and young people
- Respond to any concerns for the safety or wellbeing of a child in a program in accordance with internal reporting processes

All roles at Save the Children contribute to our impact for children

At Save the Children and 54 reasons, every role, whether in our programs or support services, plays a vital part in our impact for children. We are committed to creating a positive impact on the lives of children and their communities, and we value the contributions of every team member in achieving this vision.
