

Program Profile

Program name	Children and Young People Therapeutic Service
Location/s	Gosnells SA3, Armadale SA3, Serpentine Jarrahdale SA3, Western Australia
Client group	The Children and Young People Therapeutic Service support children and young people (4-17) impacted by family and domestic violence (FDV).
Internal stakeholders	Team Leader, Senior Practitioners, Child Development Specialists, Family Support Specialists, FDV Project Lead, FDV Practice Manager
External stakeholders	Schools, Department of Communities, Department of Education, local service providers, Children, Young People and Families
Program or project description	This service recognises that children and young people impacted by FDV have their own recovery and support needs, separate from adults. This addresses 54 Reasons' strategic goal of supporting children and young people experiencing DFSV as victim survivors in their own right. The service provides a range of therapeutic supports to children and young people including one-to-one counselling and family-based case management and therapeutic healing, outreach, and advocacy. It will also offer support for caregivers to help them understand the impacts of family and domestic violence to strengthen their capacity to support their children. The service ensures children and young people affected by family and domestic violence, including those with diverse and intersecting needs, are able to easily access age-appropriate therapeutic support to enhance their safety, recovery and healing.
Additional information	The program is currently funded until November 2027.
